

Responsible Offshore Science Alliance (ROSA) Seeking Advisory Council Applications

The Responsible Offshore Science Alliance \(ROSA\) is seeking applications from recreational and commercial fishermen to join its Advisory Council, which provides substantive direction and strategic guidance to the alliance. The deadline for applications is July 15, 2020.

ROSA is a nonprofit organization that seeks to advance regional research and monitoring of fisheries and offshore wind interactions through collaboration and cooperation. ROSA's work currently concentrates on the waters from Maine to North Carolina.

The background information and applications are linked below and can be found at <https://www.rosascience.org/>. The deadline for applications is July 15, 2020.

- Background Information for Commercial Fishermen
- Application for Commercial Fishermen
- Background Information for Recreational Fishermen
- Application for Recreational Fishermen